

Birthday Performance

Stephen Fandrich at The Point, 800 Lazy Lane

Two Nights: Wednesday and Thursday

May 6th and 7th

Door opens at 6:30 p.m., performance at 7:00

Stephen will be playing an antique Starr piano in the parlor

Bring your own drink of choice and glass

rsvp required: MethodistEncampment@gmail.com

Please specify which night.

On the occasion of Linda making it, despite some serious bumps, to a very ripe round-number age, we would like to offer you another opportunity to hear the remarkable Stephen Fandrich from Seattle perform an improvisational long-form piano solo in the intimate artsy setting of The Point. There will be a tip jar if you would like to put something in it.

Stephen is an "otherworldly musical genius." His piano improvisations exude a rare and rich combination of influences as diverse as classical and jazz piano and Indonesian gamelan, but are uniquely his own. You don't know what you're going to get when he sits down at the piano, but it will be profound.

People who had the good fortune to experience Stephen's gift at The Point commented:

- "This was like nothing else I have ever experienced. I was utterly transported."
- "There's no pianist like Stephen anywhere. No one approaches the piano like he does."
- "Stephen has a true gift. I wasn't expecting a spiritual experience, but his music opened a door that made me want to worship my Creator, which I did."

If you missed Stephen before, this is your chance! If you heard him once and would like to experience his special magic again, please join us. Please feel free to share this announcement and invite friends, but reservations are required, specifying which night. .

Note: Remember, there is virtually no parking available at The Point, so you will need to plan accordingly. You might take a chance on parking at the upper Light on the Hill lot and walking over, or up at the Cross and walking down. If you have mobility issues, you will need to arrange to be dropped off. If you need help, call 830 890-1113. Also note: It's possible that not every seat will have an equal view of the pianist, but the enchanting sound will fill all space.

--Offered by Linda Bullard and Lazer